MORE EVIDENCE OF LARGE CROWD

Preparations Are Being Made in All
Counties of Sixth District

REPORTS FROM MANY OF THEM

Shelby County Has Special Committees From Each County to Arrange Delegations

Proof that the crowd here for the ox roast next Wednesday will be the largest political gathering ever held
in Rushville is coming in from all
over the sixth district.

It is feared that the big kettle to
make the "burgoo" in will not arrive
in time to be displayed on the court house square because it is not yet
in the city. The bill of lading has been received but the kettle has not shown up yet.

Local boosters are going over the
sixth district and receiving reports
of the crowds that are coming.
Several went to Richmond this
afternoon to see how many Wayne
county would send to the big feast.

There were some Rushville men at Connersville last evening and they
brought back glowing accounts of
the anticipations of the Fayette county Republicans. There will be several automobile delegations from Fayette county, but the majority of Connersville men will come on the
I. & C. traction line. Some of the Connersville men were reported so
enthusiastic that they even ventured
the assertion that they were considering moving Connersville over for
the meeting.

Walter Bossert of Liberty is ar-
ranging for a big delegation of Union county Republicans. Word has come from Brookville that Franklin
county Republicans will send a large crowd and that an effort will
be made to bring a band.

Word has been received here that
Shelby county Republicans are making a special effort to make arrangements for a special train to be run
to Rushville on the Pennsylvania the day of the ox roast. It is possible
that the train will start at Columbus early in the morning and return
in the evening.

The Shelbyville Republican de-
votes a column to plans of the Shelby county delegation. The completeness of the plans is revealed by
the fact that there is a committee on
music, one on banners, another on
invitation and still another on automobiles. In addition committees of three and four members each have
been appointed for each township.
The competition is keen for the silk
flag offered by Enos Porter to the
township bringing the largest delegation to Rushville.

"These committees," says the Republican, "will at once begin the
duties for which they were appointed, to the end that the Rushville
meeting be the largest held during
this year in Indiana. The Sixth
district will return a Republican to
congress at forthcoming election.
No better opportunity to start this
good work can be found than the Rushville meeting."

Concerning the preparations the Republican says:

A large number of Republicans
met Wednesday night in the office of Jas. H. Phillippi for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the
district meeting to be held at Rush-
ville on Wednesday, September 15.
Every man in the meeting was enthusiastic. Rush county Republicans have never failed to respond
heartily to any invitation to be present at a meeting held in this county
and that now Rush county has extended an invite to attend the bar-

RATHER QUIET IN COURT

Postponement of Case Set for Today
Leaves Opening on Calendar.

Because of the argument on the validity of the law creating the public service commission being postponed, it was rather quiet in the circuit court today. The argument was
to have come up today, but a change
in arrangements affecting the issues
of the case caused the delay.

The case of Bayard G. Keeney
against the Farmers Trust company
on a claim demanding $280.75, was dismissed this morning and the costs
paid.

FACES CHARGE OF WIFE DESERTION

Clifford Horr is Charged in Affidavit
Filed in Circuit Court by Ruth Horr.

SAYS HE WAS JUSTIFIED

Clifford Horr was arrested this morning by Sheriff Cavitt on a charge of wife desertion. He was taken before Judge Sparks and released under bond in the sum of $200. The bond was provided by Albert Horr, his father.

The charge against Horr was filed
by his wife, Mrs. Ruth Horr, who alleges in the affidavit that he left
her on September 6. She alleges
that she gave him no cause for leaving her, and that when he left she
was without means of support.

Horr told Sheriff Cavitt that he left his wife when he found her riding around on a motorcycle with another man.

THREAT TO "KNOCK BLOCKOFF" CHARGED

Grace Casey Also Alleges in Divorce
Complaint That Husband Frequently Cursed Her

MORTGAGED HER FURNITURE

Grace Casey has filed suit for divorce from William E. Casey, alleging
cruel and inhuman treatment and
failure to provide. The complaint
states that they were married on July 15, 1911 and separated on September 6, 1915.

She alleges that he frequently
cursed her and on many occasions
threatened to "knock her block off."
She asserts that he failed to provide
for her and their child and that she
was compelled to work out for other
people in order to make a living. It is alleged that the furniture in their
home was mortgaged by him and
that during their married life the
holder of the mortgage often threatened to foreclose. She asks for the custody of their one child, fourteen
months old and $5 a week support
money.

Fred McCloud of Indianapolis,
formerly of this city, who is suffering from tumor of the brain, has
been removed to his home from the hospital. His condition is not greatly improved and it is planned to
again operate in about two months.
He is partly paralyzed on the left
side.

sengers to Indianapolis this morning.

SCHOOL ACTIVITY OPENS SATURDAY

City Teachers Will Hold Institute,
Which Includes Sectional Meetings in Afternoon.

NEW COURSE EXPLAINED

Directions Are Given For Pupils in Junior and Senior High School
at Opening.

School activities for the winter
will be formally opened Saturday
when the teachers of the city
schools will meet in institute Saturday morning. The teachers in the city schools will arrive by some
time tonight and be ready for the institute at nine o'clock in the morning.

The city institute is a new thing
here because it was not created until the last legislature, which made
changes in the school law. In the morning the teachers will hear talks
of interest and in the afternoon sectional meetings will be held.

The following addresses will be
made in the morning: "Elementary Schools," "The Junior High School,"
"The Senior High School," "English" and "The Value of Commercial Education." The last address will be made by E. W. Barrington, instructor in the new commercial course in
the high school this year.

Mr. Barrington was expected to arrive here some time today from his home in Florida. Ralph Cullipher
the new instructor in manual training is already here and was today
busy preparing and outlining his
work for the year. Mr. Cullipher
was graduated from the Muncie
normal school and the manual training department of Chicago university.

At 1:15 in the afternoon sectional meetings will be held for the following sections: grades one and two,
grades three to six inclusive and grades seven to twelve. In these meetings Superintendent Scholl will outline the work for the year and
the teachers will discuss their respective work.

It was announced today that shorthand and typewriting will be
only to third and fourth year high
school pupils and to post graduates.
The business course will be given in
the last year of the high school pupils and to post graduates. The business course will be given in the last year of the high school so that pupils may be able to become pro-

Pupils of the junior and senior
high school are asked to follow the
following directions for Monday:
Pupils in 7B will report to Miss
Nelle Casady in the room formerly occupied by 8B pupils; pupils in the 7A Grade will report to Miss Margaret Casady in the former 8A
room; pupils in Grades 8B and 8A
will report to Miss Pet Meredith in
the Junior High School Assembly,
formerly the Gymnasium. Pupils in 8A who have not passed will report in the same grade unless they
shall have passed their examinations since the close of school.

The following is a list of grade
books and their prices. When exchange prices are given, the new
books may be secured for the exchange price plus the old book of
like grade.

JURY OBTAINED TO TRY J. E. BELL

Prosecutor Rucker, in Opening Statement, Declares Indianapolis
Mayor Headed Conspiracy.

ORDERS TAKEN FROM HIM

Jury is Composed of Six Republicans, Three Democrats, Socialist,
Progressive and Prohibitionist.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., September 10.—
The jury to try Mayor Joseph E.
Bell on charges of conspiring to corrupt the Marion county elections was completed and sworn in shortly before 10 a. m., today. It is composed of six farmers, two carpenters,
one contractor, one merchant, a former policeman and a watch maker.

On the jury are six Republicans,
three Democrats, one Socialist, one
Progressive and one Prohibitionist.
Mayor Bell is a Democrat.

The jurors are:

George J. Dryer, carpenter, Republican.

Joseph Watson, farmer, Democrat.

James Brady, former policeman,
Democrat.

John B. Waggoner, carpenter, Socialist.

Louis Lacy, farmer, Prohibitionist.

Robert Whetnight, retired farmer,
Republican.

Edward A. Dittrich, merchant, Republican.

Elmer C. Stokes, watch maker,
Progressive.

Alvin Barnett, farmer, Republican.

Eugene Dressler, farmer, Democrat.

Silas Tynner, farmer, Republican.

Stanley M. Timberlake, contract-
or, Republican.

Rucker in his opening statement
branded Mayor Bell as the "fountain
head of the conspiracy."

The conspirators got their orders
from the head of this city's government, he said. The conspirators did not do criminal acts because they wanted to but because they were ordered to do them by Mayor Bell in his office at the city hall, the prosecutor declared.

Rucker asserted that "not one-
fifth of the conspirators are named
in this indictment."

The chief aim of the alleged conspiracy, according to the prosecutor,
was to elect Edward A. Lyons
county treasurer and to re-elect
Criminal Judge Markey.

"The anti-machine Democrats
were frozen out at the primaries by
this machine which rolled over them
like sod. This city machine is rotten to its very core," he continued.
"Clubs of the police were used to
drive colored voters away from the
polls and false registrations were allowed. The machine stole the primaries from the good Democrats
and stole the registration and election from the people."

Rucker asserted that Bell's first
act as head of the alleged conspiracy was to have his clerk, Fred
Barrett, appointed county chairman.

"But in spite of all this rotten-
ness," he said, "the people triumphed
at the polls."

LAD FOUND DYING.

Noblesville, Ind., Sept. 10.—Merle
Nibarger, 19 years old, son of Abel
Nibarger, a wealthy farmer, was found in a shed on his father's farm
last evening with a bullet hole in his right temple. He died in an hour. It has not yet been determined whether
it was suicide or an accident. The young man went out hunting after dinner and was not seen again until
he was found by his mother.

FIVE INDIANAPOLIS LINES

Bell Taps Cable and Puts Second
Line in Here.

With the cutting in of the local
telephone office on a direct cable by
the Bell company, Rushville now has
five lines to Indianapolis. The Bell
cable was tapped here yesterday,
giving a direct line to Indianapolis.
There are three independent lines
and two Bell connections. The service to Indianapolis is considered
excellent and means that five persons may talk to Indianapolis at the same time.

SECOND NOTE SENT TO WASHINGTON

Text of Second Berlin Communication Supplementary to One Already Sent, it is Said.

DOESN'T CONCERN HESPERIAN

By CARL W. ACKERMAN.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Berlin (Via The Hague) Sept. 10.
—A messenger from the Berlin foreign office delivered to Ambassador
Gerard a second note on the submarine question at nine o'clock last night. Its contents had not been given out at 11 a. m. today.

Its subject matter was a mystery.
It was stated on good authority that
it does not concern the sinking of the Hesperian. One report is that it
is supplementary to the note already
sent to Washington.

The Arabic note was given to the Berlin newspapers for publication in the afternoon papers of today. The early editions contained the text of
the note, but carried no editorial
comment.

KNOCKS A WINDOW CASING FROM HOUSE

Lightning Plays Peculiar Prank at Home of J. F. Ryan in Orange
Thursday Afternoon.

OTHER DAMAGE OVER COUNTY

The storm which passed over here
late Thursday afternoon did considerable damage in the eastern and southeastern part of the county. In Orange the house of J. F. Ryan was struck by lightning, but was not
set on fire. The bolt passed through the house tearing weather-
boarding off on both sides. One of the peculiar things the bolt did was
to tear a window casing entirely
out. The family was in the rear of the house and escaped injury.

The barn on the farm of Mrs.
Melvina Stevens, two miles west of Orange, was struck and a valuable
horse killed. The barn was not fired.
The lightning struck the roof and ran down in the stall, killing the horse instantly. The Orange telephone company had several phones
out today on account of the storm.

PREP. SCHOOL OPENS

(By United Press.)
Notre Dame, Ind., Sept. 10.—Notre Dame's preparatory school opened
here today. There was every indication that the attendance of the smaller division of the Catholic school would be greater than last year's record.

dianapolis today.

NEW CRISIS IS ON THE HORIZON

Relations Between United States
And Two Allied Powers, Ger-
many And Austria, Strained

TWO POINTS ARE AT ISSUE

Germany is Involved in Circumstances Leading to Recall of Austrian Ambassador

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Sept. 10.—A new
crisis in America's relations with
two great allied powers, Austria and
Germany, was reached today.

The issues upon which the United States future course in world politics were:

First—the demand upon Austria
for Ambassador Dumba's recall.

Second—Germany's unsatisfactory and disappointing note on the Arabic incident.

Officials admitted that the two
disputes were linked. Germany is involved in the circumstances leading to the Dumba situation. Austria's support of Germany in any
diplomatic agreement over the Arabic case is taken for granted.

An open break with Austria and
a retirement of Ambassador Pen-
field from Vienna was deemed possible if Austria supports Dumba's
scheme of a general strike of Austro-German subjects in American
war supply plants.

Not since the European war began has the European relations of
this country been more unpleasant
than today, officials admitted.

The Arabic note not only failed to
fulfill expectations but officials said
it vaguely qualified by inference the
kaiser assurances that he would respect the lives of Americans in his submarine warfare.

The German statement that the
kaiser was unable to acknowledge
"any obligation to grant indemnity"
was believed to be entirely unacceptable.

The question of the extent to
which Captain Von Papen, military
attache of the German Washington
embassy, was involved in the Archbald incident possessed possibilities
of trouble.

Ambassador Penfield at Vienna
has been instructed by cable to inform the Austro-Hungarian government that Dr. Constantin Dumba no longer is accepted as an envoy to
the United States and to ask for his recall.

It was the answer of the American government to Dr. Dumba's explanation of his intercepted letter to Vienna outlining plans for handi-
capping plants in this country that
are making war supplies for the allies.

Marry the Advertisement

Mr. Storekeeper, when the manufacturer advertises his
goods in this newspaper, marry
your store to the advertising.

Make a public "tie up."

Put the newspaper advertis-

It is not mere sentiment.

It is practical business.

SHELBYVILLE IS PROUD OF BAND

Delegations Will Bring Musicians
That Are Expected to Make All Others "Look Sick."

SOME BOOST FOR THE BAND

The local Republicans who go to Nashville on next Wednesday, September 15, to attend the Republican barbeque held there, have a reputation for themselves in the making for having a knowledge of good music, says the Shelbyville News. The members of the G. O. P. are taking with them the Shelbyville Military Band, who will furnish the greater part of the best music for the day.

Their reputation as musicians has long been established, many of the members being finished musicians. They play together in such a manner that only the fullest of harmonies are produced. During their recent engagements they have been placed favorably before the public and the style of music which they will play at Nashville will place Shelbyville firmly on the musical map in the sight of the Nashvilleites. There is not the least doubt but that the local men will return to our city proud of the musicians which they took with them.

TO DISCUSS ALL HIGHWAY WORK

Pan-American Road Congress at Oakland, Cal., Will Consider Phases of Construction.

EXPERTS ON THE PROGRAM

Values of Papers and Discussions
May be Seen by Persons Interested in the Work.

New York, September 10.—President Wilson, before his election, gave utterance to his views on highway improvement as follows:

"A nation is bound together by its means of communication.

Its means of communication create its thought. Its means of intercommunication are the means of its sympathy; they are the means by which the various parts of it keep in touch with one another."

This sentiment, intended in its application for the United States alone, has equal or greater force when applied to All America, because all American countries have the same problems before them. The civilizing and wealth producing results of improved highways have been amply established. The methods of finance and construction and maintenance and administration are all questions open to discussion, and the fact that almost every locality offers a separate and distinct set of conditions, causes these problems to attract the attention of the ablest minds in all countries.

The Pan-American Road Congress which will assemble at Oakland, California, September 13-17, will take up all these subjects in detail, and discuss them thoroughly. It must be considered that a great road congress is the medium through which road builders and engineers from various sections get in touch with one another. It is the channel of communication of ideas, of exchange of views. It is the clearing house where all methods and systems are weighed, and discussed, and sifted, and the most complete facts brought out.

The details of the Pan American Road Congress have been arranged with a view to covering all possible phases of highway construction, maintenance and administration, by the presentation of papers and by discussions along lines of the most complete development, by experts on the respective subjects. The value of these papers and discussions must be apparent to anyone who has any connection with road or street construction or maintenance, or who is interested in their improvement or extension.

All factors involved seem to indicate that the Pan American Road Congress will be the most largely attended and most thoroughly interesting and instructive of any similar highway meeting ever organized in this or any other country.

Special activity is reported among the road and street officials of the Pacific states, and a full attendance from that section is anticipated. There is a large amount of highway construction now in progress in the coast states, and reports are that deep interest is being taken in the Pan-American Road Congress. Its deliberations and discussions and inspections are to be of service in the work now in progress as well as in that which is in contemplation. It is also expected that the Congress will supply a force and a knowledge which will result in a more general public spirit for the betterment of the highways.

DECLARES HE IS PLEASED TO RECOMMEND IT

Newport, Ky., Man Tells of the Great Benefit Taniae Brought.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 9.—Joseph Kraham, residing at 405 Isabella St., Newport, made an interesting statement Saturday regarding the benefits he had derived from Taniae, the remarkable new medicine that is now being introduced in Cincinnati. Mr. Graham said:

"I have been all rundown in health for some time past. I was nervous and lacked energy and ambition.

"My digestion was poor, and whatever I ate often caused a distressing sensation afterward. My stomach was not in proper shape and my system became generally weakened.

"I recently heard about the success of this Taniae in Louisville and other cities, and I concluded that it was worth trying. I obtained some of the medicine and have used it regularly since. The results have been highly satisfactory. That languid, listless feeling has left me, and I am now stronger and better in every way. My digestion is improved and my sleep is sound.

"Taniae has produced a general improvement in my condition, and I now feel fine. I heartily recommend and commend it as a medicine of wonderful value.

Taniae, the Master Medicine, is now sold in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store.

SUGGESTS NEW THING FOR NURSES

Canadian Physician Says at Health Association Meeting They Should Earn Their Money.

BY KEEPING PEOPLE WELL

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 10.—A Canadian physician, Dr. C. J. Hastings of Toronto, suggested something new and interesting to the American Public Health Association meeting here today. He suggested a public health nurse, who would earn her salary as Chinese physicians earn theirs, by keeping the public well.

"The qualifications of a public health nurse," he said, "in addition to her training in a recognized school for the training of nurses, require that she must have a special training as a tuberculosis nurse, as a child welfare nurse; as a school nurse, a training in hygiene and sanitation; a training in social service, which will equip her to be an efficient social service agent; and in fact, she must be the home-maker caring for the race from the prenatal state until it passes on to the next cycle of existence. Heretofore children have been neglected until they enter school—before which, oftentimes, irreparable damage has been done.

"The knowledge of the sources of disease and the various ways and means by which it is transmitted from one person to another, has for years, for the most part, remained within the precincts of the university and laboratory. This knowledge must be democratized or translated into language that can be assimilated by the housewife in the humblest home and by the man on the street. This can undoubtedly best be accomplished by the Public Health Nurse."

TOLL OF AERIAL RAID MAY BE OVER FORTY

Thirty-seven Are Dead as Result of Zeppelin Attacks on London in Two Nights.

OTHERS EXPECTED TO DIE

(By United Press.)

London, Sept. 10.—Thirty-seven persons were killed in the Zeppelin raids on London Tuesday and Wednesday nights, it was officially announced this afternoon.

Four persons who were wounded in Tuesday night's raid died last night and early today.

Bodies of three persons reported as missing following Tuesday night's raid were found amid the debris of wrecked buildings today.

Several victims of Wednesday night's raid in which twenty persons were killed and 88 wounded were in a critical condition today. It is believed that additional deaths will put the total number of fatalities well above forty.

TWILIGHT SLEEP NOT VERY POPULAR

Indianapolis Physicians Are Not Enthusiastic Over This Latest Method

NOT ADOPTED GENERALLY

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Sept. 10.—Indiana physicians and hospitals are not enthusiastic over twilight sleep as a means to painless childbirth. However the twilight sleep method is being used more frequently in Indiana hospitals than is generally believed, they indicated.

Three obstetricians here were questioned. They said that probably every up-to-date hospital in the state has had its more or less successful twilight sleep case. They said that because application of the drug to the patient requires aid of a physician's time until the child is born, it would not be in the opinion of many doctors ever be adopted generally.

The News' Number.

Liberty Herald: The Ft. Wayne "News" recently came out in an editorial against the nomination of James E. Watson as the Republican candidate for U. S. Senator, probably in the interest of other aspirants for the nomination. Mr. Watson has a perfect right to be a candidate if he so desires and if nominated will have the support of the Republican party of Indiana. In the campaign of 1916 all true Republicans will support their party chosen nominees as a matter of principle and for the country's welfare. The unholding of principles and policies will be chief concern of Republican voters.

beue to be held in Rushville every Republican in Shelby county should feel that it is his duty to go. The meeting will be a big one. All the candidates for state offices will provide plenty to eat. It will be a regular old fashioned rally. Under new laws there is much to learn and the sooner the work of organizing is taken up the better.

Shelby county will take a band to assist in enlivening the occasion. It is right that it should. Most every one will go in automobiles. A regular parade of machines will leave Shelbyville at an hour to be fixed. It is an excellent idea that the owners of machines from various parts of the county assemble in Shelbyville to join the parade so that when Shelby county enters the Rush county metropolis the people will know something is being did.

Various committees were named to make arrangements and to rally the members of the party.

The Seymour Republican contains the following about the ox roast.

Republicans of the Sixth congressional district are planning a great rally at Rushville on Wednesday, September 15. Many state and national leaders will attend. A barbecue has been arranged and that the visitors will be well served is indicated by the announcement that the meal will be cooked in a 600-gallon kettle.

Judge O. H. Montgomery, of this city, has received an invitation from Former Congressman James E. Watson, to attend. Mr. Watson stated that all the delegates to the Republican National Convention in 1912 from Indiana would be present with two exceptions. Judge Montgomery and Webb Woodfill, of Greensburg, were the delegates from the Fourth district.

Typhoid Season Here

During the year, probably 200,000 people in the United States will contract typhoid fever. The average period of invalidism will be more than a month for every case developing, so that the economic loss, even if recovery does ensue, can be reckoned upon this basis, including at the same time the care and attention required. 50 per cent of these will be between the ages of 15 and 35 years, the very time of life when the loss is most frightful. Moreover, this is an annual toll and represents the minimum fatality which we have attained. No sooner is the computation of the 18,000 completed than another series is begun, and so on interminably. True there is some diminution in the total number, the death rate since 1900 having been diminished by half, and most of our cities showing a progressive reduction in the incidence of the disease, but it still remains much higher than that of countries which we are apt to consider less civilized than our own.

Another typhoid season is again at hand. With the advent of summer weather, the presence of flies, contamination of food products, and the increased liability of infection through changes of residence, if once more is necessary, for health bodies tones on this account. He is indeed coming an annual custom and doubtless will soon be considered one of the early prognostications of the onset of the summer season, but the health officer should not modify his to sound a warning note. This is a prophet and the voice of the prophet should be heard.

Typhoid fever is a disease of filth. It can only be contracted by taking into the system the waste products of one previously ill of the disease. These waste products are conveyed from one individual to another usually by means of a third object, such as water, flies or milk. Even if disease itself were never contracted in this manner we should revolt at the abhorrence of the idea of such uncleanness. For every case of the infection developing, someone, either the municipality or the individual, has been careless, and public opinion will soon regard such carelessness as criminal. In the eyes of the health officer typhoid fever is strictly a preventable disease, invariably originating from an antecedent case, and contracted in a most loathsome manner.

Our scientific knowledge of the disease is most complete. For thirty years the causative organism has been known and studied. Its habitat has been surveyed, the associating organisms classified, and the many facts relating to the life of the bacillus fully recorded. For nearly 20 years we have been in possession of most delicate blood tests for the recognition of the disease, tests which are not only of great diagnostic worth but which should actually assist in the prevention of the infection. Our knowledge of the dissemination of the disease, in both its epidemic and endemic forms, is consequently exact and definite. Not content with accomplishments along these lines the medical profession, in view of the continued morbidity, has even devised methods by which the public may continue to live under sanitary conditions with perfect impunity, so far as to take into their systems the filth which produces disease and death and yet, if the preventive treatment has been received, apparently, remain free from harmful effects.

In spite of these efforts and accomplishments the frightful mortality continues and the disease this year will again usher 18,000 victims to their graves. Plainly, the practical application of our knowledge is far and away behind the scientific data in our possession, and a large proportion of the population is ignoring the very principles which have been so well established. For this reason, health officers realize that further steps toward prevention must be the result of more general enlightenment and the better education of the mass of the people.

The avoidance of the infection rests primarily upon community action. The proper protection of water supplies, the eradication of filth and all its accompaniments, the attainment of a decent standard in the disposal of excrementitious material, the regulation of dairies and the safeguarding of milk are all problems which only communities as a whole can settle. Nevertheless, this does not absolve the individual citizen from responsibility, and he can do much for his own protection.

The eradication of filth is in part the duty of every citizen, and each should see that his own surroundings are in a satisfactory condition. He should guard against carelessness in the maintenance and preparation of food and withhold his patronage from those who disregard the rules of cleanliness, remembering that the foods which are most subject to contamination are milk and its products, oysters and vegetables. The role of flies in the dissemination of the infection places as garbage, manure and filth is most essential, but the proper screening of houses and the adoption of destructive measures are also of great prophylactic value. If, in spite of these precautions, the disease develops, it then becomes the duty of every citizen to implicitly follow the instructions given in order that the safety of others may not be imperiled, bearing in mind the fact that every case of typhoid fever is due to someone's ignorance or carelessness. No higher duty of citizenship than this can be conceived.

John Sparks, who was made defendant in an account suit filed this week in the circuit court is not the local man of this name but resides near Carthage.

CAPITAL TALK

When, in 1820, the commission appointed to select a new capital chose the site for Indianapolis, it had little or nothing to recommend it except its central location. It was indeed viewed with contempt by other Indiana towns, several of which had entertained the capital bee. A Brookville orator is reported to have characterized Indianapolis a "place buried in miasmatic solitude and surrounded by a boundless continuity of shade."

CONFESS KILLING NEGRO FOR $1.70

Two Boys, 20 and 17 Years Respectively, Admit Crime With Which They Are Charged.

TO BE TRIED AT MT. VERNON

Mt. Vernon, Ind., Sept. 10.—Two boys held in the county jail here soon will be tried on the charge that killed Charlie McDonald, a negro for $1.70. Coroner Wysinger, Sheriff Hall and Acting Prosecutor Zimmerman declare that Joseph Mills, 20, confessed to them that he killed McDonald on a signal from Manuel Underdown, 17. The boys will be tried this term of court which opened Tuesday.

In their alleged confession they are alleged to have told how they sneaked up on McDonald and how Mills hit him in the head with a piece of wood. They dipped a nickel to decide who should have the negro's pocket knife. They carried the body into a corn field but the younger boy lost his nerve, Mills is alleged to have said, which led him to confess.

Louis Neutzenhelzer today opened a grocery store in the room in East Ninth street just off Perkins where Mrs. Dick Nolan formerly operated a grocery.

The Hot Blast, Air Tight FLORENCE

Is the greatest stove ever made for burning hard coal, soft coal, slack or any other kind of fuel, and will burn one-third less fuel than any other make of stove to heat the same amount of space. The FLORENCE is the ONLY genuine HOT BLAST ON THE MARKET.

All patents are owned and controlled by J. B. Howard and sustained three different times by the United States courts. The FLORENCE is the best floor heater made, and if the fire pot cracks in five years we will give you one free of charge. The reason for this is the FLORENCE burns out the fuel. In all other stoves the fuel burns out the stoves.

The FLORENCE is the only jointless leg bottom base made, with full radiation, that is on the market or that has ever been made, and will be just as good a fire keeper in twenty years as it is today. Beware of imitations and people who claim they have a stove like the FLORENCE or just as good as the FLORENCE, for when they tell you that they are admitting that the FLORENCE is the best stove on the market. When you buy your stove why not select the HOT BLAST AIR TIGHT FLORENCE, which will always be remembered as a pleasure and not as a regret.

Prices from $17.50 to $31.50

Stoves Delivered and Set Up Free of Charge.

We carry the best and most complete line of Stoves and Ranges in the county. Do not fail to call and see our line and get our prices before you buy.

RUSHERS TO PLAY COLUMBUS TEAM

Several Fans Will Make the Trip as Train Service is Excellent—Hard Game Expected.

REISS WILL DO THE PITCHING

The Rushville ball team will play at Columbus Sunday, meeting the fast team of that city. The Columbus team has defeated about every team in sight this season and expect to give the Rushers a real battle. The game is being booked as a champion contest for this section of the state and a crowd of 3,000 people is expected to attend.

A number of Rushville fans will make the trip to Columbus for the game. The train over the Pennsylvania leaves here at 7:10 a. m., and returning leaves Columbus at 5:15 p. m. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock and fans will have plenty of time to make the train.

Some of the players on the Columbus team are known to local fans. Bobby Anderson, who one time wore a Rushville uniform, is doing the catching and "Lefty" Whitehouse, who has pitched here for several Indianapolis teams, is doing the pitching.

The Rushers will use their regular lineup against Columbus. Jack Reiss will do the pitching and Goodfellow will work behind the bat. Columbus fans are backing their team to the limit and it is up to Manager Davidson to make good.

CONSTITUTION ADOPTED

New York Convention Acts This Afternoon After Long Session.

(By United Press.) Albany, N. Y., Sept. 10.—The proposed new constitution for New York, which will be voted on November 2, was adopted by the convention this afternoon, 118 to 33. The constitution stands, as adopted, by the basic law measures and completed by the revision committee.

The negative vote, mostly Democratic, indicates opposition to specific proposals rather than all amendments, it was said.

CITY WILL HAVE FOOTBALL TEAM

Strong Independent Team Being Organized Here to Play on Sundays—Stonecipher Manager.

OLD STARS OF GAME TO PLAY

An independent football team is being organized by Jack Stonecipher that will represent this city on the gridiron the coming season. The games will be played at Edgewater park and only the fastest teams will be booked. Stonecipher has lined up most of the good available material and the team should prove a winner.

Some of the old stars of the game will again be seen in action. Stonecipher has lined up Wooster, Denning, Dragoo, Driscoll and Buell for the backfield and the Luellan boys will come here from Muncie, it is understood. The team will have plenty of beef and should be fast. Stonecipher is already in communication with several teams including Richmond. A meeting will be held soon at which time a captain will be elected.

TYPHUS SCOURGE HAS BEEN WIPED OUT

Dr. Strong of Harvard Has Been Praised by People of Serbia For His Bravery

PROTECTED MANY PEOPLE

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 10.—News that the American medical mission has absolutely wiped out the typhus scourge, was welcomed as great news by Col. Jevrem J. Popovich, who left his home country before the medical fight was won. He is now in this country on a special errand for Serbia.

Dr. Strong, of Harvard University, who has charge of the sanitary campaign, has come to be known as "The Messiah" among the masses of the people, said the colonel.

"The climax of respect, 'the noble American,' is the title they give him," said Col. Popovich. "He became a real popular hero when he remained in Belgrade, even after the Austrians had begun to introduce their well known 'kultur' into the Serbian capital. Many stories of how he protected weak, sick and wounded citizens from intoxicated soldiers. He alone once prevented a hospital of which he had taken charge from being stormed at the point of the bayonet. He was truly the guardian angel of our wounded and sick, aged women and infants left behind when the capital was evacuated.

INVESTIGATE FORGER.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 10.—When the Vanderburgh county grand jury met this week it took up the case of Robert Pierce who forged checks to keep his eight months old son from starving. Pierce pleaded guilty in police court and was bound over to the grand jury. Pierce cashed the checks at three groceries. They were for ninety-five cents, eighty cents and for fifty-five cents. At each store he took groceries equal to the amount of the check. Pierce said he had asked for credit but could not get it. He has been out of work for more than two months.

MAKES NEW JAWS OF WEDDING RINGS

German Dentist Works Marvels For Wounded Soldiers.

WOMEN GIVE UP THEIR GOLD

Faces Shattered by Bullets or Shrapnel Are Rebuilt at Dusseldorf From Precious Metal, With Shinbones and Pieces of Rib Taken From the Injured Men Themselves.

"You need not thank me for this. It long ago lost its significance." The "this" was a woman's wedding ring, worn and scratched.

The message, blurred and poorly written, and the ring, indicating some hidden tragedy that never will be revealed, were sent, says a dispatch from Dusseldorf, Germany, to the Chicago Daily News, to Dr. Christian Bruhn, one of Germany's most distinguished dental surgeons, for the furtherance of his work—the patching up of soldiers whose jaws have been shot away.

The patching up process requires much gold. Dr. Bruhn's clinic is free, one so far unsupported from any official source. As his fame has gone out over Germany, however, his gold reserve has increased amazingly.

A famous actress has given a heavy medallion, the gift of the ruler of a German state. A noted litterateur has donated a similar gift from the king of Sweden. Wedding rings, seal rings, necklaces, gold coins from England and from Turkey, even old gold teeth, are pouring in on Dr. Bruhn, to be melted up and find their way into the mouths of wounded soldiers.

Soldiers Made New Again.

The orthopedic institutions, where the soldiers are made new again, so that they may go back to the front, are depressing. But they cannot compare for sheer horror with the great institution in Dusseldorf where scores of men, with half of their faces left, sit or lie in a steel framework that supports a broken jaw until newly inserted bones shall have had time to knit.

The Dusseldorf institution is devoted exclusively to the care of soldiers who have been injured in the jaws and is the largest of its kind in Germany. Weekly it is turning out men who, aside from scars and somewhat impeded speech, are about as good as before the war, men who a few weeks or months before were brought in in such condition that the layman, if he could endure to gaze for long, would despair of their ever being saved.

The patients frequently are found to have ribs imbedded in the bones of their jaws, bullets often that have been flattened out or twisted by the impact against the bone. More serious are the shrapnel and grenade wounds, which tear away whole sections of the face.

Each Supplies Own Bone.

Through use of the X ray the patient's exact injury is established. In a majority of cases there is some part of bone missing—a part that must be replaced by gold or by bone from some part of his body. Each patient is his own bone supply, so to speak, and generally it is the shinbone that serves. The ribs also are a fertile field. So fast does nature work that the piece of bone taken out for use in the jaw is replaced rapidly by new growth.

One patient in the hospital slowly recovering from a wound that gouged out his whole jaw has a strip of shinbone in his mouth. On top of that is a new set of serviceable teeth. The man is healthy and reasonably happy.

In dozens of cases it is not only necessary to replace bone, but skin as well. Here again each man must supply his own. Great strips of skin are taken from the patient's arms and grafted on to cheeks or chins. Aside from the scar along the line of stitching there is usually little indication of the original injury.

Each man is photographed on the day of arrival and at intervals as his recovery progresses. To the layman the results accomplished are little short of miraculous. It is almost incredible that so much can be accomplished.

URGE AMERICANIZATION DAY.

Mayors Indorse Welcome to New Citizens on July 4.

The mayors of 250 cities in New York state, in session at Troy, adopted a resolution indorsing the movement to be made the coming Fourth of July a day on which newly naturalized citizens shall be guests of honor. They urged all other cities in the state to follow suit in appointing committees to arrange for citizenship receptions and rallies.

More than fifty other cities throughout the country have now keenly taken up the idea.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as rational designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

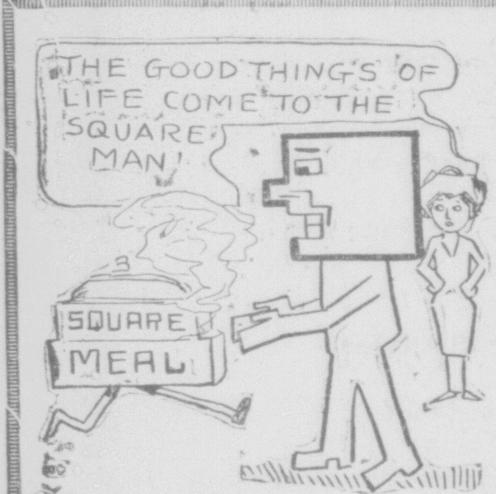

(The Beauty Seeker.)
"The real secret of keeping young-looking and beautiful," says a well-known hygienist, "is to keep the liver and bowels normally active. Without these requisites, poisonous waste products remain in the system, polluting the blood and lodging in various organs, tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese, nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled and sallow of face."
"But to get liver and bowels working they ought, without producing evil after-effects, has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of unquestioned merit, which may now be had in convenient tablet form. Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the humble May apple, or its root, which has been called 'vegetable calomel' because of its effectiveness—though of course it is not to be classed with the real calomel of mercurial origin. There is no habit-forming constituent in 'santal tablets'—that's the name—and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these harmless vegetable tablets tend to impart tone and elasticity to the relaxed intestinal wall. Santal tablets, which may be procured from any druggist—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-troubled person."

Chief Cause of Pimples, Blisters, Sallow Skin

(Messenger of Health.)
Unslightly eruptions, pimples, boils, blotches, sallow or muddy skin, usually are due to a sluggish liver, a constipated bowel—and a polluted blood stream as a consequence. How foolish are such cases to resort to outward applications, which can never have natural, permanent results. If more people only knew it, there is a very simple remedy to be found in any drug store which is as effective as it is harmless and quick acting. It is an old formula, long recognized by the medical profession, which has been used in tablet form, and at such small cost no one need now be deprived of its wonderful benefits.
"Santal tablets"—that's the name—are entirely vegetable and there's no habit-forming ingredient. You need only get about a dime's worth, and swallow one at bedtime to realize there's nothing else quite so good for the purpose. The action in the morning is so easy, so soothing, and instead of a weakening after-effect, you feel truly refreshed and invigorated. Santal tablets are not only the finest remedy known for constipation and torpid liver, but offer the sanest, most sensible treatment for complexion difficulties of the character mentioned.

Great Demand for New Constipation Remedy

They say that the advent of the "santal tablet" as a vegetable substitute for calomel has resulted in an extraordinary demand for this remarkable product. It seems to have made a hit particularly with those afflicted with chronic constipation, who were quick to recognize its advantages over calomel and the usual laxatives.
Santal tablets, aside from their efficacy, doubtless owe their success largely to a tendency to aid in bringing about natural functioning—instead of encouraging the "cathartic" habit. Also, instead of injuring the membranous lining of the organs involved, they exert a healing influence. Instead of weakening, they add tone to the intestinal wall. And they work so easily and gently, they are of course preferred on this account to the violently acting purgatives. Their inexpensiveness is another reason for the popularity of santal tablets. One need procure only a dime's worth, and take one tablet upon retiring, to be convinced that the ideal remedy for constipation, torpid liver, and their many evil consequences, has finally been found.—Druggists Review.

PARIS WAS SAVED ONE YEAR AGO

Famous Battle of the Marne Reviewed by Authority After All Facts Are Assembled

WERE IN SIGHT OF THE CITY

Germans Fooled by Believing There Was Only One Army in Paris, Lucky For Von Bulow

(Note: A year ago today the battle that saved Paris came to an end after five days of desperate fighting. It is now known as the Battle of the Marne. In the days when the struggle was raging Simms sent a stream of cablegrams telling of developments as they occurred. For the anniversary, he has sent a complete account of the battle as it would have been told Sept. 10, 1914 had it been humanly possible to assemble all the facts and get them past the censor.)

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Sept. 10, 1914.—The German army is in full retreat. The Allied forces are everywhere victorious. After getting within sight of Paris and when it seemed that nothing on earth could stop their drive, the invaders have been hurled back in disorder and the capital is safe.

With a recklessness bordering on impudence, the result of seeing fortress after fortress surrender merely before the menace of their approach, the Prussians ignored the reserves they must have known were massed here, turned eastward from Paris expecting to crush a weak and routed enemy. In so doing they uncovered their right and General Maunoury struck. Surprised, dazed almost, they turned to face the new enemy when again they were hit on the flank this time by General French of the British; Franchet d'Esperey of the Fifth; Foch of the Ninth Reserves, and the rest.

Von Kluck and Von Buelow, commanding the German right, were staggered. They fought desperately and tried to rally their armies but Foch, teacher of tactics at St. Cyr, the French West Point, outmaneuvered them, drove a murderous wedge into their lines and sent them back in panic under a storm of French 75 shells.

The German "battle without a tomorrow," has failed. The morrow is here and with it signal defeat. The Battle of the Marne is over and the French have won.

In Paris the news was hailed as the announcement of a miracle. Each day some 40,000 or 50,000 people had been abandoning the city, expecting the immediate entrance of the Germans. It was known that the Kaiser's legions were near and advancing 20 and 30 miles a day. The French and British seemed powerless to check them and an irredeemable disaster appeared inevitable.

To the few, however, sharing the confidence of General Joseph Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, the victory is gratifying but not surprising. It comes as the logical result of his plans made immediately after Charleroi.

When war was declared Joffre knew he would have to face what the Germans called a "brusked attack." Just where this would come he had no idea. Adopting one of Napoleon's maxims "to engage everywhere, then see," he spread out his men and endeavored to obtain contact with the enemy. The mass move came through Belgium and Luxembourg, the point least expected, with the result that Joffre's reserves were a long way off. Greatly outnumbered and without sufficient time to bring up reinforcements, Joffre, who had felt the enemy's strength at Charleroi, determined to fall back towards his reserves while his reserves advanced to meet him. Furthermore he profited by the lessons of 1870 which were distinctly to the effect that conquered territory may be redeemed but a beaten army ends all hope. No matter what happened, he resolved to keep his armies intact; to refuse all offers of battle until such a time as he deemed the chances were in his favor. Not even to save Paris would he allow himself to engage in a decisive struggle if he felt the moment had not come.

Hoping the favorable moment might come somewhere along the Champagne tablelands, Joffre started the formation of a new army at Amiens. This was the Ninth Army, under General Maunoury. The trains transported this army only at night and, I am told by staff officers, the Germans were not aware of its formation.

But the German advance was too rapid. The new army was not more than half formed when Amiens had to be abandoned. Lillie, Arras, and most of northern France was overrun so, again by night, the army of Maunoury hastened back to Paris where its enrollment was completed.

Sept. 3 the Germans were in sight of the capital. Their right was a few miles to the north of Paris while their line continued on southeastward, eastward and northeastward. Uhlans patrols reached the Seine to the southeast of Paris and within a few miles of the Seine to the northwest.

The German General Staff had to decide whether they would take Paris immediately or to follow up and crush an army which they believed to be demoralized, routed and incapable of serious opposition. They chose the latter alternative—the only proper one from a military point of view for which the Allied army crushing Paris would fall like ripe fruit into the first hand that shook the tree.

So, instead of continuing directly southward and entering Paris, Von Kluck's army in conjunction with Von Buelow's army turned eastward to deliver the knockout blow.

Joffre's longed-for minute had come. His air scouts reported that Von Kluck's masses had faced the east and that Von Buelow's were pouring across the Marne at many points. He sent for Sir John French commanding the British, The British, in the forest of Crey and extending eastward towards Conlommiers, would keep in touch with the Fifth army under d'Esperey. Other commanders were ordered to begin their attack at dawn Sept. 6, Joffre, in his order of the day, concluding with:

"An army which can no longer advance, must hold; and if it can not hold, must die."

At daybreak on the 6th Maunoury's reserves struck, full in Von Kluck's flank. Evidently the latter's intelligence department had failed signally.

Had he known of the presence of Maunoury's army in and north of Paris, and at least eight divisions strong, he would not have dared turn his flank to it the way he did. I am told he thought, as did Von Buelow, that there was only one army in Paris and that it would be held for the capital's defense. As a matter of fact there were two—the army of Paris and the Army of Maunoury.

In the meantime the British, with five infantry divisions and five brigades of cavalry, were moving north-eastward with comparatively little resistance. By night they had reached a position astride the Grand Morin their right being at Dagny, on the Aubetin River.

Further east the fighting had been much hotter for here it was a frontal attack. D'Esperey had to carve his way forward and he did not get far on the 6th. He had against him the bulk of Von Kluck's army; the Westphalians, Hanoverians and Brandenburgers. Foch, with his Ninth Reserves, east of D'Esperey not only had Van Buelow opposing him but the right wing of Von Hausen's Saxons. The Duke of Wurtemberg met attack with attack when Langle's Fourth Army struck at him near Vitry and did his best to break through. The result was a standstill fight.

Sarrail, around Verdun, had been less lucky for the German Crown Prince and the Crown Prince of Bavaria struck with all their might hoping to take Vrdue, the forts along the Heights of the Meuse and so turn the French right. They gained some ground, though they failed in their greater task.

On the 7th the fighting was resumed more fiercely than ever. Maunoury's flanking movement went forward with a dash and the British were carried with it. The plateaus along the River Ourcq were piled high with German dead. Elsewhere, despite desperate attacks the French merely held their own.

The 8th seems to have been the critical day. Manoury kept up his advance with the British on his right while Foch saw the opening for his wedge. During the night he continued his maneuvers so that at dawn on 9th he was pounding away at a large gap between Von Hausen and Von Buelow, at the same time, with his left he, too, struck at Von Bueow's right uncovered by Maunoury and the British.

The retreat of Von Buelow imposed. Caught in a pocket only a rapid retirement could save him and his army. This he did very cleverly. Staff officers declare only a genius could have extricated himself, for, at times, under violent shellfire from the French 3-inch rapid-fire field pieces, his troops showed signs of panic.

The retreat of Von Kluck was followed by that of Von Buelow and the other commanders eastward to the Vosges. The German army is expected to make a stand on the Aisne, north of which a high tableland offers what is considered one of the greatest defenses in Europe. Unless they hold there it is believed they will lose all they have gained.

NEW YORK FASHION NOTES

By MARGARET MASON (Written for United Press.)

"Is it a waste, the maiden said, To buy a lovely waist of red, That's made of many yards of mull?" Sure such a waist full can't be wasteful.

New York, Sept. 10.—The new Fall blouses are rightly designated for few and far between are the females who won't fall for them. Such exquisitism is theirs as has never been before or behind either for they are much ornamented in the rear.

They are more bouffant for one thing and require divers lengths of diaphanous material to complete their sheer entirety. Georgette crepe, chiffon, and crepe de chine continue to be the favorite mediums. Fur, lace and metallic embroideries are the favored garnishments.

One unique model of white crepe de chine is absolutely plain in front with a deep sailor collar of white silk plush in the back that is edged with a fringe of sassy little black and white ermine tails. The long sleeves are caught together at the cuff with a single tiny tail and there you are—the tail of the blouse is ended.

A stunning blouse for an elderly woman (if there is any such thing) is of grey chiffon and black lace with a banding of skunk around the neck and down each side of the front to the bust line. The sleeves which have a cap top of lace and full under sleeves of the chiffon are cuffed in the fur. The lace is set in the back to form a point from the shoulders to the waist line and in front extends from the shoulders straight down each side of the fur bands.

Combinations of materials and of two colors are distinctly smart. Of those that seek their contrasting color in fur the white waists combined with skunk and the yellow with skunk are perhaps the loveliest.

Chiffon and velvet waists are also rich and effective. A Russian green velvet waist with sleeves and yoke of the same shade of chiffon has for sole adornment a choker collar of bear with a greenish gold metallic rose smugling coyly on the left side.

A vivid striped velvet of grey, black, scarlet and yellow has a high collar of astrakhan and the long flaring bell sleeves are deeply banded with the same.

The colored waists of Jersey silk promise but a dubious following for fall although the fur trimmed sweaters of heavy wool or silk have been shaken off of the Summer girl's fair shoulders only to descend gracefully and fittingly upon those of Miss Autumn. They are sure to be decidedly smart well up into November for wear with tailor made skirts of serve, velvet and even taffeta. For yes, taffeta is to be a Fall fabric this year as well as a perennial Spring one.

Quite the cleverest of the tailored coat suits are fashioned of this silk and combined with fur to give them a bit more stability.

Although military styles and trench fashions are trying to re-trench they have suffered almost a total defeat in the autumn mode encounters.

With the exception of the prevalence of Russian coats, turbanded and full skirted a la Cossack, and a gleaming gold tassel or so a la Belgian officer little or no militarism has been allowed to gain headway against the lines of the allied a la modes.

It certainly brooks much fashionable peace that the awful onslaught of military helmets, turbans, Highland bonnets and Belgian caps has been stayed and female headgear is once more staid again also. That is of course it is as circumspect as feminine head gear could ever be. Really very little exaggeration is shown as yet in the Fall hat models and either the close fitting little round and tri-corn shape of velvet are effected or the ultra large round floppy velvet shapes. A one color scheme has gripped the little hat and odd and bizarre shades have been evolved to meet the needs of a one toned hat that will at the same time be sufficiently striking.

Royal purple, mahogany and a bright Prussian blue are a few of the colors used and a variation of the ever popular cerise is also offered. So vivid are some of the hues that it is going to be mighty hard for mere man to pass the hats this Fall without adding blinders to his other recently acquired fashionable accessory—the wrist watch.

SEES MENACE IN SOME DISEASES

Speaker Declares There is New Public Health Problem Facing People of This Country

VARIOUS ALARMS SOUNDED

Figures Show Widespread of Degeneration—Individual Hygiene is Being Urged

(By United Press.)

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Various alarms were sounded today by speakers before the annual session of the American Public Health Association, attended by public health officers and medical men from all parts of the United States. Probably the most startling statistics presented were those offered by E. E. Rittenhouse, of New York, on "Increasing Organic Disease," which he declared is the new public health problem.

"The increasing waste of American vitality and life from the degenerative diseases among the wage-earners and other classes is rapidly reaching the magnitude of a national menace," said Dr. Rittenhouse. "Surely the doubling of the mortality rate from this cause should be a matter of serious public concern."

"In three decades the death rate from the breaking down or wearing out of the heart, arteries and kidneys has increased 100 per cent. In the period from 1900 to 1910 the increase has been as high as 38 per cent in some states and no less than 17 per cent in every state. In the preceding ten years the increase was 52 per cent among the more than four million men in mechanical industries and in the laboring, servant and agricultural classes combined."

The condition described, said Dr. Rittenhouse, is local to America, not being found in European countries.

"There are constantly approximately 15,000,000 Americans in the 'development period' said the speaker. This period ranges from a few weeks to several years in which the disease may be checked or cured. Most of these people are drifting into disease unknowingly. They are uninformed, unwarned. If the state can afford to fight germ diseases why not degenerative disease? If it can teach community hygiene to check one, why not individual hygiene to check the other. Action is needed."

Dr. Eugene Lyman Fisk, of New York, said that in 1913, 130,000 persons died of chronic disease of the vital machinery—all preventable or postponable. The figures reflect widespread degeneration, impairment and premature decay, he said. He recommended:

1. Avoidance of physical or mental overstrain.
2. Moderation in eating; especially of meat.
3. Avoidance of stimulating, highly seasoned food.
4. Abstinence from alcohol and tobacco.
5. Regular exercises within the individual's limits.

OLD FIGURE IN ENGLAND PASSES

Traditional Country Gentleman is Becoming Thing of the Past Since War Began.

"FOR SALE" SIGNS COMMON

Manor Houses are Being Disposed of and Fox Chase and Shooting is Abandoned.

(BY WILBUR S. FORREST.)

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Aug. 17. (By Mail)—This is the open season for castles, manor houses and mansions in England.

The traditional English country gentleman is quitting. He's hanging out signs which say: "For Sale," or "For Rent."

Country life in England, for which England is famous, is one of the real victims of war. The country gentleman has forsaken the fox hunt, the shooting and fishing, coaching and golf. He's either off to the battle field or he's cutting down expenses and hundreds of them are quitting for good.

If an American millionaire, out gunning for something in castles or manors, should visit the real estate agents in England today he would find the British castle and manor market overstocked with a still heavier supply of mansions and smaller varieties of aristocratic strongholds. He would find them abutting the Thames near London, stretched along the shores of the historic Avon and dotted here and there from the vicinity of the beautiful Midway in Kent to the Severn on the English West Coast. He would find them in North England, Scotland and Wales, and could have his choices from among twenty types of architecture, historic and modern. He could rent them or buy them with a dozen to thirty bedrooms and with a dozen to thousands of acres to be used for recreation or sports.

If this American millionaire doubted that the business of being an English country gentleman is getting unpopular he could motor two hours from London and find a great Georgian mansion with 4600 acres that abound in choice hunting and fishing. The acres and the mansion are for sale or for rent. He could take a train to Berwick-on-Tweed, in Berwickshire, and find an historic old castle with its 4,618 acres stretched along the whittadder with its fishing, its hunting, its 3 packs of hounds, its 18 hole golf course, deer parks and drives, for sale, bag and baggage, or—for rent. Or if this did not suit, he could return to London, re-enter his motor and spin for an hour to the North of the Metropolis where he would find a magnificent Elizabethian mansion, of 18 bed and dressing rooms, salons, halls, spacious dining and drawing rooms, with its 2800 acres divided into a wilderness of shrubberies and lawns, old cedar avenues, terraced walks and timbered parks, its lodges, stables and garages—for sale at a bargain. He could travel to the Midlands near Birmingham and Sheffield and find three of the best bargains in manor houses in England. He could take his choice of a magnificent Tudor manor house in Worcestershire with its luxury of reception rooms, fifteen bedrooms and all other things that generally go with English manor houses; or a great manorial estate not far away of 2,000 acres, advertised as having the "best fishing in England," or another historic manor in the same neighborhood with its eighteen bedrooms, reception rooms, billiards, hunting and golf, all surrounded by 360 acres that must be sold, to someone.

A trip into, South Downs, one hour from London, would find a stately mansion of the old Sussex Yeoman style with its adjoining lodges, cottages, timbers, parks covering 500 acres.

Another short jaunt from London would find another great Elizabethian mansion advertised for sale cheap as follows: Twenty bed and dressing rooms, stabling, garages, all other appurtenances with shooting lands of 3,500 acres, a deer park of 200 acres—for sale at a bargain.

Two great English country estates will go under the auctioneer's hammer in September. They've been on the market for months and failing of purchases will be cut into farms. One is in the center of the Blackmoor Vale near Sherborne. Its great manor contains a wealth of luxurious fittings. The estate is 6,400 acres that will be converted to agriculture.

The great residential agricultural sporting estate known as Stisted Hall, Essex, near Braintree, of 3396 acres, is the other.

These are only a few of the "For Sale," or "For Rent," signs in the British Isles today.

The war has played havoc with the British country gentleman.

TODAY'S HOOSIER ODDITY

* Lebanon, Ind., Sept. 10.—

* Anna, the Jersey cow of I. S. Adney living near here, completely disappeared while Adney was threshing. But the gates had remained closed and no one had seen her jump over the fence. Finally someone remembered having seen her asleep by the old stack that had made the foundation for the new one. They dug her out from under the straw none the worse for her experience.

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. RICHMOND, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R.I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N.Y.

PERU, N.Y.—"Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it."—Mrs. MARIA IRWIN, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N.Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass.

SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. JANE D. DUNCAN, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

NEW CRISIS IS ON THE HORIZON

following note to the Foreign Office:

"Mr. Constantin Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Washington, has admitted that he proposed to his government plans to instigate strikes in American manufacturing plants engaged in the production of munitions of war. The information reached this government through a copy of a letter of the ambassador to his government. The bearer was an American citizen named Archibald, who was traveling under an American passport. The ambassador has admitted that he employed Archibald to bear official dispatches from him to his government.

"By reason of the admitted purpose and intent of Mr. Dumba to conspire to cripple legitimate industries of the people of the United States and to interrupt their legitimate trade and by reason of the flagrant violation of diplomatic propriety in employing an American citizen protected by an American passport as a secret bearer of official dispatches through the lines of the enemy of Austria-Hungary, the President directs me to inform your excellency that Mr. Dumba is no longer acceptable to the government of the United States as the ambassador of his Imperial Majesty at Washington.

"Believing that the imperial and royal government will realize that the government of the United States has no alternative but to request the recall of Mr. Dumba on account of his improper conduct, the government of the United States expressed its deep regret that this course has become necessary and assure imperial and royal government that it sincerely desires to continue the cordial and friendly relations which exist between the United States and Austria-Hungary."

WILL NOT ADMIT ANY OBLIGATION

Germany Upholds Commander of Submarine Which Sank Arabic, in Note Received Here.

SAYS ATTACK WAS FEARED

Willing to Submit Question to Hague, Providing Ruling is Not Binding in This War.

Berlin (via London), Sept. 10.—Germany's note to the United States bearing on the sinking of the White Star Line steamer Arabic on Aug. 19, which was communicated to the American ambassador, James W. Gerard, for transmission to Washington is in the form of a memorandum under date of Sept. 7, the text of which follows:

"On Aug. 19 a German submarine stopped the English steamer Dunsley about sixteen nautical miles south of Kinsale, and was on the point of sinking the prize by gunfire after the crew had left the vessel. At this moment the commander saw a large steamer making directly toward him. This steamer, as developed later, was the Arabic. It was recognized as an enemy vessel, as it did not fly any flag and bore no neutral markings.

"When it approached it altered its original course, but then again pointed directly toward the submarine. From this the commander became convinced that the steamer had the intention of attacking and ramming him.

"In order to anticipate this attack he gave orders for the submarine to dive and fired a torpedo at the steamer. After firing he convinced himself that the people on board were being rescued in fifteen boats.

"According to his instructions, the commander was not allowed to attack the Arabic without warning and without saving the lives unless the ship attempted to escape or offered resistance. He was forced, however, to conclude from the attendant circumstances that the Arabic planned a violent attack on the submarine.

"This conclusion is all the more obvious as he had been fired upon at a great distance in the Irish Sea on Aug. 14—that is, a few days before—by a large passenger steamer apparently belonging to the British Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, which he had neither attacked nor stopped.

The German government most deeply regrets that lives were lost through the action of the commander. It particularly expresses this regret to the government of the United States on account of the death of American citizens.

"The German government is unable, however, to acknowledge any obligation to grant indemnity in the matter, even if commandery should have been mistaken as to the aggressive intentions of the Arabic.

"If it should prove to be the case that it is impossible for the German and American governments to reach a harmonious opinion on this point, the German government would be prepared to submit the difference of opinion as being a question of international law to The Hague tribunal for arbitration pursuant to Article 38 of The Hague convention for the pacific settlement of international disputes.

"In so doing it assumes that as a matter of course the arbitral decision shall not be admitted to have the importance of a general decision on the permissibility or the converse under international law of German submarine warfare."

In discussing alleged trouble at her home in Glenwood Tuesday night, when Sheriff Cavitt was called there, Mrs. Jasper Dudgeon said that her husband was not causing any trouble when her sons, Frank and Jesse Vandiver, arrived. She said she had been to Rushville Tuesday afternoon and had returned sick. Her husband inquired after her condition, she said, and her two sons tried to put him out of the house. She declared Mr. Dudgeon did not threaten to do her any bodily harm.

THREE BIG B'S ARE FOR SINGLE TAX

Blount, Boehne and Bosse of Evansville Come Out For This System, All Make Announcements

WILLING TO BE CALLED CRANK

(By United Press.)
Evansville, Ind., Sept. 10.—The three "Big B's" of this city have come out for the single tax. They are Walter E. Blount, president of the Evansville Business Men association; John W. Boehne, former mayor and congressman and Mayor Bosse.

Boehne, in announcing his stand said he was willing to be called a crank. Blount had said in public meeting that anyone who favored the single tax and mentioned a constitutional convention as means to get it was considered a crank.

"Go to it" whispered Boehne. "I'll be a crank with you."

Bosse who has opposed a constitutional convention, said he would favor one if convinced that by that means only can the single tax be obtained.

Blount explained he favored a modified single tax. "It's a 'three tax' system on lands, incomes and inheritances," he said.

DIPLOMATS HOLD CONFLAB IN HOTEL

Austrian and German Ambassador Meet in St. Regis in New York in Secret Conference.

NEITHER ANSWER QUERIES

(By United Press.)

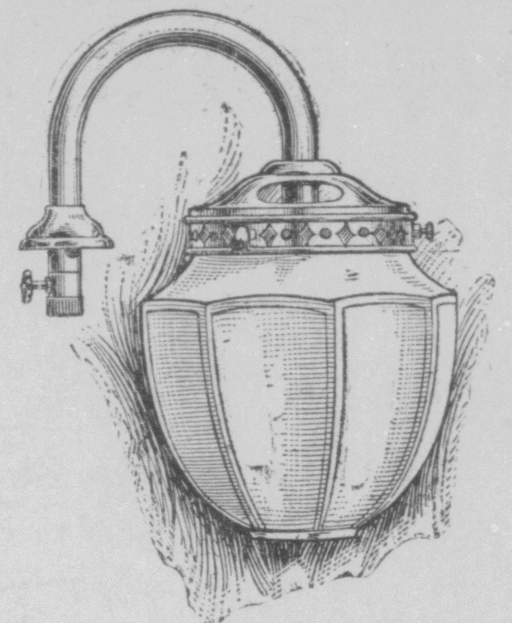

New York, Sept. 10.—Ambassador Bernstorff and Austrian Ambassador Dumba held a lengthy conference in Dr. Dumba's suite at the St. Regis hotel today while attaches of the hotel were busy issuing reports that the Austrian ambassador had left.

The two diplomats were still in earnest conversation when they emerged from the elevator. Bernstorff strode quickly out of the lobby after an energetic handshake with Dumba.

Neither would answer any questions put by newspaper men.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ora Lower, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson and Mrs. Elmer Miller attended the fair at Indianapolis yesterday.

THE MAUZY COMPANY

CHOOSING is much easier when stocks are large and varied, and where you have almost unlimited power of selection.

THESE dress materials were secured in a personal visit to the New York market, so that their correctness can not be questioned.

Wondrous Variety of Weaves and Colors

Our silk offerings are really gorgeous, and are in such vast assortments of attractive shades and fabrics that you will find shopping here a genuine pleasure. All the little accessories are here too, to make the finished costume a creation of beauty.

Among our Autumn Slik offerings are Gros de Londres, Georgette Crepe, Crepe de Chene, Crepe Meteor, Charmeuse, Silk Faille, Silk Poplin, Taffetas, and exquisite Plaids in Taffeta, Satin and Faille.

Fall Woolens of Real Worth

Shades for the most part are rich and dark. The favored weaves are gaberdine, poplin, French serge, storm serge, tussah, crepe, prunella, taffeta and batiste. Worsted plaids and stripes are particularly good. There are some beautiful fancy plaids for children's school wear.

Especially worthy of your attention are the many colors in costume velvet, corduroy velvet and panne velvet. They will claim a share of your time.

FUR TRIMMINGS are very popular and we are showing a splendid assortment in coney, skunk, opossum, raccoon, beaver and bear.

MORE EVIDENCE OF LARGE CROWD

Preparations Are Being Made in All
Counties of Sixth District

Shelby County Has Special Com-
Arrange Delegations

Proof that the crowd here for the
ox roast next Wednesday will be the
largest political gathering ever held
in Rushville is coming in from all
over the sixth district.

It is feared that the big kettle to
make the "burgoo" in will not arrive
in time to be displayed on the court-
house square because it is not yet
in the city. The bill of lading has
shown up yet.

Local boosters are going over the
sixth district and receiving reports
of the crowds that are coming.
Several went to Richmond this
afternoon to see how many Wayne
County would send to the big feast.

There were some Rushville men at Connersville last evening and they
brought back glowing accounts of
the anticipations of the Fayette
county Republicans. There will be
several automobile delegations from Fayette county, but the majority of Connersville men will come on the
J. & C. traction line. Some of the Connersville men were reported so
enthusiastic that they even ventured
the assertion that they were considering moving Connersville over for
the meeting.

Walter Bossert of Liberty is ar-
ranging for a big delegation of Union county Republicans. Word has come from Brookville that Franklin
county Republicans will send a
large crowd and that an effort will
be made to bring a band.

Word has been received here that
Shelby county Republicans are making a special effort to make arrangements for a special train to be run
to Rushville on the Pennsylvania the
day of the ox roast. It is possible
that the train will start at Columbus early in the morning and return
in the evening.

The Shelbyville Republican de-
votes a column to plans of the Shelby county delegation. The completeness of the plans is revealed by
the fact that there is a committee on
music, one on banners, another on
invitation and still another on automobiles. In addition committees of
three and four members each have
been appointed for each township.
The competition is keen for the silk
flag offered by Enos Porter to the
township bringing the largest delegation to Rushville.

"These committees," says the Republican, "will at once begin the
duties for which they were appointed, to the end that the Rushville
meeting be the largest held during
this year in Indiana. The Sixth
district will return a Republican to
congress at forthcoming election.
No better opportunity to start this
good work can be found than the Rushville meeting."

Concerning the preparations the Republican says:

A large number of Republicans
met Wednesday night in the office of Jas. H. Phillips for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the
district meeting to be held at Rush-
ville on Wednesday, September 15.
Every man in the meeting was enthusiastic. Rush county Republicans have never failed to respond
heartily to any invitation to be pre-
sent at a meeting held in this county
and that now Rush county has extended an invite to attend the bar-
nook.

RATHER QUIET IN COURT

Postponement of Case Set for Today
Leaves Opening on Calendar.

Because of the argument on the
validity of the law creating the public service commission being postponed, it was rather quiet in the circuit court today. The argument was
to have come up today, but a change
in arrangements affecting the issues

The case of Bayard G. Keeney
against the Farmers Trust company
on a claim demanding $280.75, was dismissed this morning and the costs
paid.

FACES CHARGE OF WIFE DESERTION

Clifford Horr is Charged in Affidavit
Ruth Horr.

SAYS HE WAS JUSTIFIED

Clifford Horr was arrested this morning by Sheriff Cavitt on a charge of wife desertion. He was taken before Judge Sparks and released under bond in the sum of $200. The bond was provided by Albert Horr, his father.

The charge against Horr was filed
by his wife, Mrs. Ruth Horr, who
alleges in the affidavit that he left
her on September 6. She alleges
that she gave him no cause for leaving her, and that when he left she
was without means of support.

ing around on a motorcycle with an-
other man.

THREAT TO "KNOCK BLOCKOFF" CHARGED

Complaint That Husband Frequently Cursed Her

MORTGAGED HER FURNITURE

Grace Casey has filed suit for divorce from William E. Casey, alleging
cruel and inhuman treatment and
failure to provide. The complaint
states that they were married on July 15, 1911 and separated on September 6, 1915.

She alleges that he frequently
cursed her and on many occasions
threatened to knock "her block off."
She asserts that he failed to provide
for her and their child and that she
was compelled to work out for other
people in order to make a living. It
is alleged that the furniture in their
home was mortgaged by him and
that during their married life the
holder of the mortgage often threatened to foreclose. She asks for the
custody of their one child, fourteen
months old and $5 a week support
money.

Fred McCloud of Indianapolis,
formerly of this city, who is suffering from tumor of the brain, has
been removed to his home from the hospital. His condition is not greatly improved and it is planned to
again operate in about two months.
side.

A. L. Riggs was among the passengers to Indianapolis this morning.

SCHOOL ACTIVITY JURY OBTAINED OPENS SATURDAY TO TRY J. E. BELL

City Teachers Will Hold Institute,
Which Includes Sectional Meet-

Directions Are Given For Pupils in Junior and Senior High School
at Opening.

School activities for the winter
will be formally opened Saturday
when the teachers of the city
schools will meet in institute Saturday morning. The teachers in the
city schools will arrive by some
time tonight and be ready for the
institute at nine o'clock in the morning.

The city institute is a new thing
here because it was not created until the last legislature, which made
changes in the school law. In the morning the teachers will hear talks
of interest and in the afternoon sectional meetings will be held.

The following addresses will be
made in the morning: "Elementary Schools," "The Junior High School,"
"The Senior High School," "English" and "The Value of Commercial Education." The last address will be made by E. W. Barrington, instructor in the new commercial course in
the high school this year.

Mr. Barrington was expected to arrive here some time today from his
home in Florida. Ralph Cullipher,
the new instructor in manual training is already here and was today
busy preparing and outlining his
work for the year. Mr. Cullipher
was graduated from the Muncie
normal school and the manual training department of Chicago university.

At 1:15 in the afternoon sectional meetings will be held for the following sections: grades one and two,
grades three to six inclusive and
grades seven to twelve. In these meetings Superintendent Scholl will
outline the work for the year and
spective work.

It was announced today that
shorthand and typewriting will be
only to third and fourth year high
school pupils and to post graduates.
The business course will be given in
the last year of the high school pupils and to post graduates. The
business course will be given in the
last year of the high school so that

Pupils of the junior and senior
high school are asked to follow the
following directions for Monday:
Pupils in 7B will report to Miss
Nelle Casady in the room formerly occupied by 8B pupils; pupils in the 7A Grade will report to Miss
Margaret Casady in the former 8A
room; pupils in Grades 8B and 8A
will report to Miss Pet Meredith in
the Junior High School Assembly,
formerly the Gymnasium. Pupils in 8A who have not passed will report in the same grade unless they
shall have passed their examinations since the close of school.

The following is a list of grade
books and their prices. When exchange prices are given, the new
books may be secured for the exchange price plus the old book of
like grade.

Prosecutor Rucker, in Opening Statement, Declares Indianapolis
Mayor Headed Conspiracy.

ORDERS TAKEN FROM HIM

Jury is Composed of Six Republicans, Three Democrats, Socialist,
Progressive and Prohibitionist.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., September 10.—
The jury to try Mayor Joseph E.
Bell on charges of conspiring to corrupt the Marion county elections was
completed and sworn in shortly before 10 a. m., today. It is composed of six farmers, two carpenters,
one contractor, one merchant, a former policeman and a watch maker.

On the jury are six Republicans,
three Democrats, one Socialist, one
Progressive and one Prohibitionist.
Mayor Bell is a Democrat.

The jurors are:

George J. Dryer, carpenter, Republican.

Joseph Watson, farmer, Democrat.

James Brady, former policeman,
Democrat.

John B. Waggoner, carpenter, So-
cialist.

Louis Lacy, farmer, Prohibitionist.

Robert Whetnight, retired farmer,
Republican.

Edward A. Dittich, merchant, Republican.

Elmer C. Stokes, watch maker,
Progressive.

Alvin Barnett, farmer, Republican.

Eugene Dressler, farmer, Democrat.

Silas Tyner, farmer, Republican.

Stanley M. Timberlake, contract-
or, Republican.

Rucker in his opening statement
branded Mayor Bell as the "fountain
head of the conspiracy."

The conspirators got their orders
from the head of this city's government, he said. The conspirators did
not do criminal acts because they wanted to but because they were ordered to do them by Mayor Bell in
his office at the city hall, the prosecutor declared.

Rucker asserted that "not one-
fifth of the conspirators are named
in this indictment."

The chief aim of the alleged conspiracy, according to the prosecutor,
was to elect Edward A. Lyons
county treasurer and to re-elect
Criminal Judge Markey.

"The anti-machine Democrats
were frozen out at the primaries by
this machine which rolled over them
like a sod. This city machine is rotten to its very core," he continued.
"Clubs of the police were used to
drive colored voters away from the
polls and false registrations were
allowed. The machine stole the primaries from the good Democrats
and stole the registration and election from the people."

Rucker asserted that Bell's first
act as head of the alleged conspiracy was to have his clerk, Fred
Barrett, appointed county chairman.
"But in spite of all this rotten-
ness," he said, "the people triumphed
at the polls."

LAD FOUND DYING.

Noblesville, Ind., Sept. 10.—Merle
Nibarger, 19 years old, son of Abel
Nibarger, a wealthy farmer, was
found in a shed on his father's farm
last evening with a bullet hole in his right temple. He died in an hour. It
has not yet been determined whether
it was suicide or an accident. The young man went out hunting after dinner and was not seen again until

FIVE INDIANAPOLIS LINES

Bell Taps Cable and Puts Second
Line in Here.

With the cutting in of the local
telephone office on a direct cable by
the Bell company, Rushville now has
five lines to Indianapolis. The Bell
cable was tapped here yesterday,
giving a direct line to Indianapolis.
There are three independent lines
and two Bell connections. The service to Indianapolis is considered
excellent and means that five persons may talk to Indianapolis at the same time.

SECOND NOTE SENT TO WASHINGTON

Text of Second Berlin Communication Supplementary to One Al-
ready Sent, it is Said.

DOESN'T CONCERN HESPERIAN

By CARL W. ACKERMAN.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Berlin. (Via The Hague) Sept. 10.

A messenger from the Berlin foreign office delivered to Ambassador
Gerard a second note on the sub-
marine question at nine o'clock last night. Its contents had not been given out at 11 a. m. today.

Its subject matter was a mystery.
It was stated on good authority that
it does not concern the sinking of
the Hesperian. One report is that it
is supplementary to the note already
sent to Washington.

The Arabic note was given to the Berlin newspapers for publication in
the afternoon papers of today. The
early editions contained the text of

KNOCKS A WINDOW CASING FROM HOUSE

Lightning Plays Peculiar Prank at Home of J. F. Ryan in Orange
Thursday Afternoon.

OTHER DAMAGE OVER COUNTY

The storm which passed over here
late Thursday afternoon did considerable damage in the eastern and southeastern part of the county. In Orange the house of J. F. Ryan was struck by lightning, but was not
set on fire. The bolt passed
through the house tearing weather-
boarding off on both sides. One of
the peculiar things the bolt did was
to tear a window casing entirely
out. The family was in the rear of the house and escaped injury.

The barn on the farm of Mrs.
Melvina Stevens, two miles west of Orange, was struck and a valuable
horse killed. The barn was not fired.
The lightning struck the roof and
ran down the stall, killing the horse instantly. The Orange telephone company had several phones

PREP. SCHOOL OPENS

(By United Press.)

Notre Dame, Ind., Sept. 10.—Notre Dame's preparatory school opened
here today. There was every indication that the attendance of the smaller division of the Catholic school
would be greater than last year's record.

John Hiner was a visitor in Indianapolis today.

NEW CRISIS IS ON THE HORIZON

Relations Between United States
And Two Allied Powers, Ger-
many And Austria, Strained

TWO POINTS ARE AT ISSUE

Germany is Involved in Circumstances Leading to Recall of
Austrian Ambassador

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Sept. 10.—A new
crisis in America's relations with
two great allied powers, Austria and
Germany, was reached today.

The issues upon which the United States future course in world policies were:

First—the demand upon Austria
for Ambassador Dumba's recall.

Second—Germany's unsatisfac-
tory and disappointing note on the Arabic incident.

Officials admitted that the two
disputes were linked. Germany is involved in the circumstances leading to the Dumba situation. Austria's support of Germany in any
diplomatic agreement over the Arabic case is taken for granted.

An open break with Austria and
a retirement of Ambassador Pen-
field from Vienna was deemed possible if Austria supports Dumba's
scheme of a general strike of Austro-German subjects in American
war supply plants.

Not since the European war began has the European relations of
this country been more unpleasant
than today, officials admitted.

The Arabic note not only failed to
fulfill expectations but officials said
it vaguely qualified by inference the
kaiser assurances that he would
respect the lives of Americans in his
submarine warfare.

The German statement that the
kaiser was unable to acknowledge
"any obligation to grant indemnity"
was believed to be entirely unaccep-
table.

The question of the extent to
which Captain Von Papen, military
attache of the German Washington
embassy, was involved in the Archibald incident possessed possibilities
of trouble.

Ambassador Penfield at Vienna
has been instructed by cable to inform the Austro-Hungarian government that Dr. Constantin Dumba no
longer is accepted as an envoy to
the United States and to ask for his
recall.

It was the answer of the American government to Dr. Dumba's explanation of his intercepted letter to Vienna outlining plans for handi-
capping plants in this country that
are making war supplies for the allies.

Ambassador Penfield was instruc-

Marry the Advertisement

Mr. Storekeeper, when the
manufacturer advertises his
goods in this newspaper, marry
your store to the advertising.

Make a public "tie up."
Put the newspaper advertised goods where people will see them.

Let the public know you have faith in the goods and the advertising.

It is not mere sentiment.
It is practical business.

You are rendering a public service profitable to yourself.

SHELBYVILLE IS PROUD OF BAND

Delegations Will Bring Musicians That Are Expected to Make All Others "Look Sick."

SOME BOOST FOR THE BAND

The local Republicans who go to Nashville on next Wednesday, September 15, to attend the Republican barbecue held there, have a reputation for themselves in the making for having a knowledge of good music, says the Shelbyville News. The members of the G. O. P. are taking with them the Shelbyville Military Band, who will furnish the greater part of the best music for the day. Their reputation as musicians has long been established, many of the members being finished musicians. They play together in such a manner that only the fullest of harmonies are produced. During their recent engagements they have been placed favorably before the public and the style of music which they will play at Nashville will place Shelbyville firmly on the musical map in the sight of the Nashvilleites. There is not the least doubt but that the local men will return to our city proud of the musicians which they took with them.

TO DISCUSS ALL HIGHWAY WORK

Pan-American Road Congress at Oakland, Cal., Will Consider Phases of Construction.

EXPERTS ON THE PROGRAM

Values of Papers and Discussions May be Seen by Persons Interested in the Work.

New York, September 10.—President Wilson, before his election, gave utterance to his views on highway improvement as follows: "A nation is bound together by its means of communication."

Its means of communication create its thought. Its means of intercommunication are the means of its sympathy; they are the means by which the various parts of it keep in touch with one another."

This sentiment, intended in its application for the United States alone, has equal or greater force when applied to All America, because all American countries have the same problems before them. The civilizing and wealth producing results of improved highways have been amply established. The methods of finance and construction and maintenance and administration are all questions open to discussion, and the fact that almost every locality offers a separate and distinct set of conditions, causes these problems to attract the attention of the ablest minds in all countries.

The Pan-American Road Congress which will assemble at Oakland, California, September 13-17, will take up all these subjects in detail, and discuss them thoroughly. It must be considered that a great road congress is the medium through which road builders and engineers from various sections get in touch with one another. It is the channel of communication of ideas, of exchange of views. It is the clearing house where all methods and systems are weighed, and discussed, and sifted, and the most complete facts brought out.

The details of the Pan-American Road Congress have been arranged with a view to covering all possible phases of highway construction, maintenance and administration, by the presentation of papers and by discussions along lines of the most complete development, by experts on the respective subjects. The value of these papers and discussions must be apparent to anyone who has any connection with road or street construction or maintenance, or who is interested in their improvement or extension.

All factors involved seem to indicate that the Pan American Road Congress will be the most largely attended and most thoroughly interesting and instructive of any similar highway meeting ever organized in this or any other country.

Special activity is reported among the road and street officials of the Pacific states, and a full attendance from that section is anticipated. There is a large amount of highway construction now in progress in the coast states, and reports are that deep interest is being taken in the Pan-American Road Congress. Its deliberations and discussions and inspections are to be of service in the work now in progress as well as in that which is in contemplation. It is also expected that the Congress will supply a force and a knowledge which will result in a more general public spirit for the betterment of the highways.

SUGGESTS NEW THING FOR NURSES

BY KEEPING PEOPLE WELL

(By United Press.)

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 10.—A Canadian physician, Dr. C. J. Hastings of Toronto, suggested something new and interesting to the American Public Health Association meeting here today. He suggested a public health nurse, who would earn her salary as Chinese physicians earn theirs, by keeping the public well.

"The qualifications of a public health nurse," he said, "in addition to her training in a recognized school for the training of nurses, require that she must have a special training as a tuberculosis nurse, as a child welfare nurse; as a school nurse, a training in hygiene and sanitation; a training in social service, which will equip her to be an efficient social service agent; and in fact, she must be the home-maker caring for the race from the prenatal state until it passes on to the next cycle of existence. Heretofore children have been neglected until they enter school—before which, oftentimes, irreparable damage has been done.

"The knowledge of the sources of disease and the various ways and means by which it is transmitted from one person to another, has for years, for the most part, remained within the precincts of the university and laboratory. This knowledge must be democratized or translated into language that can be assimilated by the housewife in the humblest home and by the man on the street. This can undoubtedly best be accomplished by the Public Health Nurse."

It is a romance of an American heiress who unknowingly marries a lord. Tomorrow matinee and night Jack Mulhall and Irma Dawkins will be seen in a two act drama "Love's Melody."

TOLL OF AERIAL RAID MAY BE OVER FORTY

Thirty-seven Are Dead as Result of Zeppelin Attacks on London in Two Nights.

OTHERS EXPECTED TO DIE

(By United Press.)

London, Sept. 10.—Thirty-seven persons were killed in the Zeppelin raids on London Tuesday and Wednesday nights, it was officially announced this afternoon.

Four persons who were wounded in Tuesday night's raid died last night and early today.

Bodies of three persons reported as missing following Tuesday night's raid were found amid the debris of wrecked buildings today.

Several victims of Wednesday night's raid in which twenty persons were killed and 88 wounded were in a critical condition today. It is believed that additional deaths will put the total number of fatalities well above forty.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Sept. 10.—Indiana physicians and hospitals are not enthusiastic over twilight sleep as a means to painless childbirth. However the twilight sleep method is being used more frequently in Indiana hospitals than is generally believed, they indicated.

Three obstetricians here were questioned. They said that probably every up-to-date hospital in the state has had its more or less successful twilight sleep case. They said that because application of the drug to the patient requires aid of a physician's time until the child is born, it would not in the opinion of many doctors ever be adopted generally.

The Rev. C. M. Yocum had two marriages at the Main Street Christian church parsonage Wednesday. Miss Ethel Hurst and Wilbur Mahin, both of near Homer, and Miss Grace Kunter and Charles Fisher, both of near Blue Ridge, were married by the Rev. Mr. Yocum.

Friends here have just received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Katherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mercer, of Plainfield, to Mr. James D. Bullington, of Hardinsburg, Ind., at noon May 15th, 1915 at Cincinnati, O. The marriage was not known to friends and relatives until last week.

The bride is well known in Carthage, her former home. Mr. Bullington is teacher of Industrial Arts in the schools of Indianapolis. They are at home at 2027 Singleton street, Indianapolis.

because to be held in Rushville every Republican in Shelby county should feel that it is his duty to go. The meeting will be a big one. All the candidates for state offices will provide plenty to eat. It will be a regular old-fashioned rally. Under new laws there is much to learn and the sooner the work of organizing is taken up the better.

Shelby county will take a band to assist in enlivening the occasion. It is right that it should. Most every one will go in automobiles. A regular parade of machines will leave Shelbyville at an hour to be fixed. It is an excellent idea that the owners of machines from various parts of the county assemble in Shelbyville to join the parade so that when Shelby county enters the Rush county metropolis the people will know something is being did.

Various committees were named to make arrangements and to rally the members of the party.

The Seymour Republican contains the following about the ox roast.

Republicans of the Sixth congressional district are planning a great rally at Rushville on Wednesday, September 15. Many state and national leaders will attend. A barbecue has been arranged and that the visitors will be well served is indicated by the announcement that the meal will be cooked in a 600-gallon kettle.

Judge O. H. Montgomery, of this city, has received an invitation from Former Congressman James E. Watson, to attend. Mr. Watson stated that all the delegates to the Republican National Convention in 1912 from Indiana would be present with two exceptions. Judge Montgomery and Webb Woodfill, of Greensburg, were the delegates from the Fourth district.

Typhoid Season Here

During the year, probably 200,000 people in the United States will contract typhoid fever. The average period of invalidism will be more than a month for every case developing, so that the economic loss, even if recovery does ensue, can be reckoned upon this basis. Including at the same time the care and attention required, 50 per cent of these will be between the ages of 15 and 35 years, the very time of life when the loss is most frightful. Moreover, this is an annual toll and represents the minimum fatality which we have attained. No sooner is the computation of the 18,000 completed than another series is begun, and so on interminably. True there is some diminution in the total number, the death rate since 1900 having been diminished by half, and most of our cities showing a progressive reduction in the incidence of the disease, but it still remains much higher than that of countries which we are apt to consider less civilized than our own.

Another typhoid season is again at hand. With the advent of summer weather, the presence of flies, contamination of food products, and the increased liability of infection through changes of residence, it once more is necessary for health bodies to take into account. He is indeed coming an annual custom and doubtless will soon be considered one of the early prognostications of the onset of the summer season, but the health officer should not modify his to sound a warning note. This is because a prophet and the voice of the prophet should be heard.

Typhoid fever is a disease of filth. It can only be contracted by taking into the system the waste products of one previously ill of the disease. These waste products are conveyed from one individual to another usually by means of a third object, such as water, flies or milk. Even if disease itself were never contracted in this manner we should revolt at the abhorrence of the idea of such uncleanness. For every case of the infection developing, someone, either the municipality or the individual, has been careless, and public opinion will soon regard such carelessness as criminal. In the eyes of the health officer typhoid fever is strictly a preventable disease, invariably originating from an antecedent case, and contracted in a most loathsome manner.

Our scientific knowledge of the disease is most complete. For thirty years the causative organism has been known and studied. Its habitat has been surveyed, the associating organisms classified, and the many facts relating to the life of the bacillus fully recorded. For nearly 20 years we have been in possession of most delicate blood tests for the recognition of the disease, tests which are not only of great diagnostic worth but which should actually assist in the prevention of the infection. Our knowledge of the dissemination of the disease, in both its epidemic and endemic forms, is consequently exact and definite. Not content with accomplishments along these lines the medical profession, in view of the continued morbidity, has even devised methods by which the public may continue to live under sanitary conditions with perfect impunity, so far as to take into their systems the filth which produces disease and death. In spite of these efforts and accomplishments the frightful mortality continues and the disease this year will again usher 18,000 victims to their graves. Plainly, the practical application of our knowledge is far and away behind the scientific data in our possession, and a large proportion of the population is ignoring the very principles which have been so well established. For this reason, health officers realize that further steps toward prevention must be the result of more general enlightenment and the better education of the mass of the people.

The avoidance of the infection rests primarily upon community action. The proper protection of water supplies, the eradication of filth and all its accompaniments, the attainment of a decent standard in the disposal of excrementitious material, the regulation of dairies and the safeguarding of milk are all problems which only communities as a whole can settle. Nevertheless, this does not absolve the individual citizen from responsibility, and he can do much for his own protection.

The eradication of filth is in part the duty of every citizen, and each should see that his own surroundings are in a satisfactory condition. He should guard against carelessness in the maintenance and preparation of food and withhold his patronage from those who disregard the rules of cleanliness, remembering that the foods which are most subject to contamination are milk and its products, oysters and vegetables. The role of flies in the dissemination of the infection places as garbage, manure and filth is most essential, but the proper screening of houses and the adoption of destructive measures are also of great prophylactic value. If, in spite of these precautions, the disease develops, it then becomes the duty of every citizen to implicitly follow the instructions given in order that the safety of others may not be imperiled, bearing in mind the fact that every case of typhoid fever is due to someone's ignorance or carelessness. No higher duty of citizenship than this can be conceived.

When, in 1820, the commission appointed to select a new capital chose the site for Indianapolis, it had little or nothing to recommend it except its central location. It was indeed viewed with contempt by other Indiana towns, several of which had entertained the capital bid. A Brookville orator is reported to have characterized Indianapolis as a "place buried in miasmatic solitude and surrounded by a boundless continuity of shade."

CONFESS KILLING NEGRO FOR $1.70

Two Boys, 20 and 17 Years Respectively, Admit Crime With Which They Are Charged.

TO BE TRIED AT MT. VERNON

(By United Press.)

Mt. Vernon, Ind., Sept. 10.—Two boys held in the county jail here soon will be tried on the charge that killed Charlie McDonald, a negro for $1.70. Coroner Wysinger, Sheriff Hall and Acting Prosecutor Zimmerman declare that Joseph Mills, 20, confessed to them that he killed McDonald on a signal from Manuel Underdown, 17. The boys will be tried this term of court which opened Tuesday.

In their alleged confession they are alleged to have told how they sneaked up on McDonald and how Mills hit him in the head with a piece of wood. They slipped a nickel to decide who should have the negro's pocket knife. They carried the body into a corn field but the younger boy lost his nerve, Mills is alleged to have said, which led him to confess.

Louis Neutzenhelzer today opened a grocery store in the room in East Ninth street just off Perkins where Mrs. Dick Nolan formerly operated a grocery.

Is the greatest stove ever made for burning hard coal, soft coal, slack or any other kind of fuel, and will burn one-third less fuel than any other make of stove to heat the same amount of space. The FLORENCE is the ONLY genuine HOT BLAST ON THE MARKET.

All patents are owned and controlled by J. B. Howard and sustained three different times by the United States courts. The FLORENCE is the best floor heater made, and if the fire pot cracks in five years we will give you one free of charge. The reason for this is the FLORENCE burns out the fuel. In all other stoves the fuel burns out the stoves.

The FLORENCE is the only jointless leg bottom base made, with full radiation, that is on the market or that has ever been made, and will be just as good a fire keeper in twenty years as it is today.

Beware of imitations and people who claim they have a stove like the FLORENCE or just as good as the FLORENCE, for when they tell you that they are admitting that the FLORENCE is the best stove on the market. ## RUSHERS TO PLAY COLUMBUS TEAM

Several Fans Will Make the Trip as Train Service Is Excellent—Hard Game Expected.

REISS WILL DO THE PITCHING

The Rushville ball team will play at Columbus Sunday, meeting the fast team of that city. The Columbus team has defeated about every team in sight this season and expect to give the Rushers a real battle. The game is being booked as a championship contest for this section of the state and a crowd of 3,000 people is expected to attend.

A number of Rushville fans will make the trip to Columbus for the game. The train over the Pennsylvania leaves here at 7:10 a. m., and returning leaves Columbus at 5:15 p. m. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock and fans will have plenty of time to make the train.

Some of the players on the Columbus team are known to local fans. Bobby Anderson, who one time wore a Rushville uniform, is doing the catching and "Lefty" Whitehouse, who has pitched here for several Indianapolis teams, is doing the pitching.

The Rushers will use their regular lineup against Columbus. Jack Reiss will do the pitching and Goodfellow will work behind the bat. Columbus fans are backing their team to the limit and it is up to Manager Davidson to make good.

CONSTITUTION ADOPTED

New York Convention Acts This Afternoon After Long Session.

(By United Press.) Albany, N. Y., Sept. 10.—The proposed new constitution for New York, which will be voted on November 2, was adopted by the convention this afternoon, 118 to 33. The constitution stands, as adopted, by the basic law measures and completed by the revision committee.

The negative vote, mostly Democratic, indicates opposition to specific proposals rather than all amendments, it was said.

CITY WILL HAVE FOOTBALL TEAM

Strong Independent Team Being Organized Here to Play on Sundays—Stonecipher Manager.

OLD STARS OF GAME TO PLAY

An independent football team is being organized by Jack Stonecipher that will represent this city on the gridiron the coming season. The games will be played at Edgewater park and only the fastest teams will be booked. Stonecipher has lined up most of the good available material and the team should prove a winner.

Some of the old stars of the game will again be seen in action. Stonecipher has lined up Wooster, Denning, Drago, Driscoll and Buell for the backfield and the Luellan boys will come here from Muncie, it is understood. The team will have plenty of beef and should be fast. Stonecipher is already in communication with several teams including Richmond. A meeting will be held soon at which time a captain will be elected.

TYPHUS SCOURGE HAS BEEN WIPED OUT

Dr. Strong of Harvard Has Been Praised by People of Serbia For His Bravery

PROTECTED MANY PEOPLE

(By United Press.) New York, Sept. 10.—News that the American medical mission has absolutely wiped out the typhus scourge, was welcomed as great news by Col. Jevrem J. Popovich, who left his home country before the medical fight was won. He is now in this country on a special errand for Serbia.

Dr. Strong, of Harvard University, who has charge of the sanitary campaign, has come to be known as "The Messiah" among the masses of the people, said the colonel.

"The climax of respect, 'the noble American,' is the title they give him," said Col. Popovich. "He became a real popular hero when he remained in Belgrade, even after the Austrians had begun to introduce their well known 'kultur' into the Serbian capital. Many stories of how he protected weak, sick and wounded citizens from intoxicated soldiers. He alone once prevented a hospital of which he had taken charge from being stormed at the point of the bayonet. He was truly the guardian angel of our wounded and sick, aged women and infants left behind when the capital was evacuated."

INVESTIGATE FORGER.

(By United Press.) Evansville, Ind., Sept. 10.—When the Vanderburgh county grand jury met this week it took up the case of Robert Pierce who forged checks to keep his eight months old son from starving. Pierce pleaded guilty in police court and was bound over to the grand jury. Pierce cashed the checks at three groceries. They were for ninety-five cents, eighty cents and for fifty-five cents. At each store he took groceries equal to the amount of the check. Pierce said he had asked for credit but could not get it. He has been out of work for more than two months.

MAKES NEW JAWS OF WEDDING RINGS

German Dentist Works Marvels For Wounded Soldiers.

WOMEN GIVE UP THEIR GOLD

Faces Shattered by Bullets or Shrapnel Are Rebuilt at Dusseldorf From Precious Metal, With Shinbones and Pieces of Rib Taken From the Injured Men Themselves.

"You need not thank me for this. It long ago lost its significance." The "this" was a woman's wedding ring, worn and scratched.

The message, blurred and poorly written, and the ring, indicating some hidden tragedy that never will be revealed, were sent, says a dispatch from Dusseldorf, Germany, to the Chicago Daily News, to Dr. Christian Bruhn, one of Germany's most distinguished dental surgeons, for the furtherance of his work—the patching up of soldiers whose jaws have been shot away.

The patching up process requires much gold. Dr. Bruhn's clinic is free, one so far unsupported from any official source. As his fame has gone out over Germany, however, his gold reserve has increased amazingly. A famous actress has given a heavy medalion, the gift of the ruler of a German state. A noted litterateur has donated a similar gift from the king of Sweden. Wedding rings, seal rings, necklaces, gold coins from England and from Turkey, even old gold teeth, are pouring in on Dr. Bruhn, to be melted up and find their way into the mouths of wounded soldiers.

Soldiers Made New Again. The orthopedic institutions, where the soldiers are made new again, so that they may go back to the front, are depressing. But they cannot compare for sheer horror with the great institution in Dusseldorf where scores of men, with half of their faces left, sit or lie in a steel framework that supports a broken jaw until newly inserted bones shall have had time to knit.

The Dusseldorf institution is devoted exclusively to the care of soldiers who have been injured in the jaws and is the largest of its kind in Germany. Weekly it is turning out men who, aside from scars and somewhat impeded speech, are about as good as before the war, men who a few weeks or months before were brought in in such condition that the layman, if he could endure to gaze for long, would despair of their ever being saved. The patients frequently are found to have rifle bullets imbedded in the bones of their jaws, bullets often that have been flattened out or twisted by the impact against the bone. More serious are the shrapnel and grenade wounds, which tear away whole sections of the face.

Each Supplies Own Bone. Through use of the X ray the patient's exact injury is established. In a majority of cases there is some part of bone missing—a part that must be replaced by gold or by bone from some part of his body. Each patient is his own bone supply, so to speak, and generally it is the shinbone that serves. The ribs also are a fertile field. So fast does nature work that the piece of bone taken out for use in the jaw is replaced rapidly by new growth. One patient in the hospital slowly recovering from a wound that gouged out his whole jaw has a strip of shinbone in his mouth. On top of that is a new set of serviceable teeth. The man is healthy and reasonably happy. In dozens of cases it is not only necessary to replace bone, but skin as well. Here again each man must supply his own. Great strips of skin are taken from the patient's arms and grafted on to cheeks or chins. Aside from the scar along the line of stitching there is usually little indication of the original injury.

Each man is photographed on the day of arrival and at intervals as his recovery progresses. To the layman the results accomplished are little short of miraculous. It is almost incredible that so much can be accomplished.

URGE AMERICANIZATION DAY.

Mayors Indorse Welcome to New Citizens on July 4.

The mayors of 250 cities in New York state, in session at Troy, adopted a resolution indorsing the movement to be made the coming Fourth of July a day on which newly naturalized citizens shall be guests of honor. They urged all other cities in the state to follow suit in appointing committees to arrange for citizenship receptions and rallies.

More than fifty other cities throughout the country have now keenly taken up the idea.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as practical designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer, Mr. A. H. Schrichte.

following note to the Foreign Office:

"Mr. Constantin Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Washington, has admitted that he proposed to his government plans to instigate strikes in American manufacturing plants engaged in the production of munitions of war. The information reached this government through a copy of a letter of the ambassador to his government. The bearer was an American citizen named Archibald, who was traveling under an American passport. The ambassador has admitted that he employed Archibald to bear official dispatches from him to his government.

"By reason of the admitted purpose and intent of Mr. Dumba to conspire to cripple legitimate industries of the people of the United States and to interrupt their legitimate trade and by reason of the flagrant violation of diplomatic propriety in employing an American citizen protected by an American passport as a secret bearer of official dispatches through the lines of the enemy of Austria-Hungary, the President directs me to inform your excellency that Mr. Dumba is no longer acceptable to the government of the United States as the ambassador of his Imperial Majesty at Washington.

"Believing that the imperial and royal government will realize that the government of the United States has no alternative but to request the recall of Mr. Dumba on account of his improper conduct, the government of the United States expressed its deep regret that this course has become necessary and assure imperial and royal government that it sincerely desires to continue the cordial and friendly relations which exist between the United States and Austria-Hungary."

WILL NOT ADMIT ANY OBLIGATION

Germany Upholds Commander of Submarine Which Sank Arabic, in Note Received Here.

SAYS ATTACK WAS FEARED

Willing to Submit Question to Hague, Providing Ruling is Not Binding in This War.

Berlin (via London), Sept. 10.—Germany's note to the United States bearing on the sinking of the White Star Line steamer Arabic on Aug. 19, which was communicated to the American ambassador, James W. Gerard, for transmission to Washington is in the form of a memorandum under date of Sept. 7, the text of which follows:

"On Aug. 19 a German submarine stopped the English steamer Dunsley about sixteen nautical miles south of Kinsale, and was on the point of sinking the prize by gunfire after the crew had left the vessel. At this moment the commander saw a large steamer making directly toward him. This steamer, as developed later, was the Arabic. It was recognized as an enemy vessel, as it did not fly any flag and bore no neutral markings.

"When it approached it altered its original course, but then again pointed directly toward the submarine. From this the commander became convinced that the steamer had the intention of attacking and ramming him.

"In order to anticipate this attack he gave orders for the submarine to dive and fired a torpedo at the steamer. After firing he convinced himself that the people on board were being rescued in fifteen boats.

"According to his instructions, the commander was not allowed to attack the Arabic without warning and without saving the lives unless the ship attempted to escape or offered resistance. He was forced, however, to conclude from the attendant circumstances that the Arabic planned a violent attack on the submarine.

"This conclusion is all the more obvious as he had been fired upon at a great distance in the Irish Sea on Aug. 14—that is, a few days before—by a large passenger steamer apparently belonging to the British Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, which he had neither attacked nor stopped.

The German government most deeply regrets that lives were lost through the action of the commander. It particularly expresses this regret to the government of the United States on account of the death of American citizens.

"The German government is unable, however, to acknowledge any obligation to grant indemnity in the matter, even if commander should have been mistaken as to the aggressive intentions of the Arabic.

"If it should prove to be the case that it is impossible for the German and American governments to reach a harmonious opinion on this point, the German government would be prepared to submit the difference of opinion as being a question of international law to The Hague tribunal for arbitration pursuant to Article 38 of The Hague convention for the pacific settlement of international disputes.

"In so doing it assumes that as a matter of course the arbitral decision shall not be admitted to have the importance of a general decision on the permissibility or the converse under international law of German submarine warfare."

In discussing alleged trouble at her home in Glenwood Tuesday night, when Sheriff Cavitt was called there, Mrs. Jasper Dudgeon said that her husband was not causing any trouble when her sons, Frank and Jesse Vandiver, arrived. She said she had been to Rushville Tuesday afternoon and had returned sick. Her husband inquired after her condition, she said, and her two sons tried to put him out of the house. She declared Mr. Dudgeon did not threaten to do her any bodily harm.

WILLING TO BE CALLED CRANK

(By United Press.)

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 10.—The three "Big B's" of this city have come out for the single tax. They are Walter E. Blount, president of the Evansville Business Men association; John W. Boehne, former mayor and congressman and Mayor Bosse.

Boehne, in announcing his stand said he was willing to be called a crank. Blount had said in public meeting that anyone who favored the single tax and mentioned a constitutional convention as means to get it was considered a crank.

"Go to it" whispered Boehne. "I'll be a crank with you."

Bosse who has opposed a constitutional convention, said he would favor one if convinced that by that means only can the single tax be obtained.

Blount explained he favored a modified single tax. "It's a 'three tax' system on lands, incomes and inheritances," he said.

DIPLOMATS HOLD CONFLAB IN HOTEL

Austrian and German Ambassador Meet in St. Regis in New York in Secret Conference.

NEITHER ANSWER QUERIES

(By United Press.)

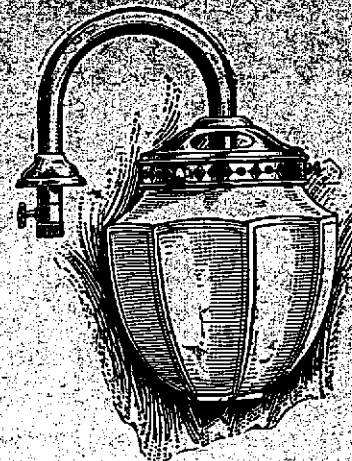

New York, Sept. 10.—Ambassador Bernstorff and Austrian Ambassador Dumba held a lengthy conference in Dr. Dumba's suite at the St. Regis hotel today while attaches of the hotel were busy issuing reports that the Austrian ambassador had left.

The two diplomats were still in earnest conversation when they emerged from the elevator. Bernstorff strode quickly out of the lobby after an energetic handshake with Dumba.

Neither would answer any questions put by newspaper men.

Wondrous Variety of Weaves and Colors

Our silk offerings are really gorgeous, and are in such vast assortments of attractive shades and fabrics that you will find shopping here a genuine pleasure. All the little accessories are here, too, to make the finished costume a creation of beauty.

Among our Autumn Silk offerings are Gros de Londres, Georgette Crepe, Crepe de Chene, Crepe Meteor, Charmeuse, Silk Faille, Silk Poplin, Taffetas, and exquisite Plaids in Taffeta, Satin and Faille.

Fall Woolens of Real Worth

Shades for the most part are rich and dark. The favored weaves are gaberdine, poplin, French serge, storm serge, tussah, crepe, prunella, taffeta and batiste. Worsted plaids and stripes are particularly good. There are some beautiful fancy plaids for children's school wear.

Especially worthy of your attention are the many colors in costume velvet, corduroy velvet and panne velvet. They will claim a share of your time.

FUR TRIMMINGS are very popular and we are showing a splendid assortment in coney, skunk, opossum, raccoon, beaver and bear.
